

Hull Law Review
Volume 2 (2024-25)

Contents

Professor Helen Johnston

Foreword 7

John Kaya and Briony Dodds

Editorial..... 8

Lindsay Moir

The Josephine Onoh Memorial Lecture 2024..... 11

Rachel Murray

Implementation of African Human Rights Bodies' Decisions: Is a Model Law on Enabling Legislation a Way Forward? 13

Elizabeth Shaw

Should Misogyny be Considered a Hate Crime? 17

Rebecca Lamb-Busby

The Tensions between Human Rights and National Security in the UK: A Case Study Of Shamima Begum 33

Emmanuel Kwegyir Arthur-Ewusie

The Cross - Cultural Legitimacy of Human Rights: Can Human Rights be Relocated in Cultures different from their Origin? 48

Emilia Hinchliffe

Reforming the Law on Domestic Abuse in England and Wales: A Critical Examination of 'Clare's Law.' 57

Sam Lomax

A Critical Analysis of the Practices and Approaches to ICA, in light of the introduction of the Singapore Convention on Mediation 73

Oluwanifise Samuel Adeleke

Regulatory Frameworks for AI Governance: Why the Global South Must Play a Central Role.. 85

Olawale Emmanuel Oyebo

Post-9/11 US Intervention in Afghanistan: Challenges to Unprivileged Combatants' Rights ... 102

M Jashim Ali Chowdhury

Conference on "Democracy and State Building in Bangladesh after the breakdown of One-Party Dominance" 119

Md Abdul Halim

Assessing the Effectiveness of the National Human Rights Commission of Bangladesh: Compliance with the Paris Principles 127

Mohammad Mohiuddin and SM Ashfaqur Rahman

Rohingya Influx from Myanmar and the Associated Security Challenges in Bangladesh: An Empirical Study in Kutupalong Camp, Cox's Bazar..... 139

Nafees Ahmad and Sk. Iftesham Islam

Embedding AI in the Constitution of Bangladesh: A Case for the Framework for Algorithmic Constitutionalism 157

Emmanuel Chukwufumnaya Chukwueloke

Book Review..... 179